

The use of public airways for biased political programming is sets a very bad precedent. Our political system is already marred by monied special interest groups...lets not make it worse.